

Tatyutka's Mirror, Sysert' Ceramic Goods Factory, 1968-1977, porcelain figurine of a little girl and her mirror from Bazhov's fairytale.

3 1/4" x 2 3/8" x 1 3/16" (8 x 6 x 3cm). The model was created in 1968 by sculptor Tatyana Sinyavskya. This figurine is based on the fairytale by P. Bazhov "Татюкино Зеркало" about the girl Tatyutka (or little Tatyana), daughter of a poor mine worker in the Ural mountains. She just found the enchanted mirror in her dad's mine, apparently a gift by the magic "Mistress of the Mountain" which only the girl could use and enjoy...
