Soviet Ceramics, the Sandretti Collection of 20th Century Russian Art, Lydia Andreyeva, Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art of Trento and Revereto.

Russian and English text, soft cover with dust jacket, 11½" x 9¾", 239 pp. This catalog of the 2004-05 exhibition in Italy presents a magnificent array of Soviet propaganda and decorative porcelain and faience, including some rare early pieces by less known makers. Beside beautiful close-up photos of hundreds of artifacts, the book includes extensive bibliography, ample information about the artists and artisans, catalog of maker marks, glossary of terms and abbreviations, and much more.

The book is long out of print and is a rarity in and of itself. An outstanding resource for the collector! Single copy in stock, in near mint condition: shows only tiny bit of shelf wear to the cover, otherwise perfect.
