

Medal of Honored Employee of Residential and Communal Services of RSFSR, 1979 - 1995 issue.

In nickel-plated brass and "cold" enamel. Medallion measures 38.0 mm in height (incl. eyelet), 30.4 mm in width, and features riveted two-piece construction. Early mint mark "MMD" of the Moscow Mint to the reverse of the suspension device.

In excellent, near mint condition. The raised details, finish and enamel are extremely well preserved. There are only very minor, barely noticeable scuffs on the reverse. The Title of Honored Employee for the industry was established in 1977, at the height of the Brezhnev era and relatively late in comparison with most other RSFSR honorary titles. The medal was introduced two years later.
