

Jubilee Medal (Badge) in Commemoration of the 30th Anniversary of SKVV (Soviet War Veterans Committee), 1986 issue.

In brass with lacquer finish. Medallion measures about 29 mm wide. The obverse features the monument to WW2 Soviet soldier in the Berlin's Treptower Park. The reverse has inscription "Jubilee Badge, XXX Anniversary of SKVV (Soviet War Veterans Committee)". The eyelet shows stamped mint mark "LMD" (Leningrad mint). There is raised logo of the Leningrad Mint on the reverse of the suspension device.

In excellent condition. The details and finishes are perfect essentially perfect, with only tiny contact marks.

The Soviet War Veterans Committee was formed in 1956 on Marshal Zhukov's initiative. Throughout its existence, the organization issued several awards that were presented mostly to veterans who were still playing significant role in Soviet society after the war. The SKVV 30th Anniversary Medal in particular was awarded rather sparingly.
