

Medal of the Winner of a Stakhanovite Labor Shift, circa 1960s-70s.

In brass; medallion measures 31.6 mm tall (incl. eyelet), 27.7 mm wide. Massive two-piece construction; the nickel-plated central portion depicting a coalmine and crossed hammers is a separate superimposed part attached by a rivet. The letters ЛКМВ ("LKSMU") in the center stand for Lenin Communist Youth League of Ukraine. The reverse has raised inscription in Ukrainian: "For Active Participation in the Development of Coal Mining Industry". The brass suspension has a cloth ribbon representing the national flag of Soviet Ukraine. The reverse of the suspension shows logo of the Yuvelirprom Industrial Conglomerate in Kiev.

In excellent condition, free of noticeable scratches or other wear. The finishes are nicely preserved, without blemishes.

Item# 34779

$35.00

© Atlantic Crossroads, Inc.
www.collectrussia.com

© Atlantic Crossroads, Inc.
www.collectrussia.com

