Miniature Moscow Goodwill Games Flower Vase, by Lomonosov Porcelain Factory (LFZ), Leningrad, 1986.

Porcelain, stands approx. 11 cm tall, 5.5 cm wide at the rim, 45 mm at the base. Features the logo of the Moscow 1986 Goodwill Games on the neck and a 4-bicyclist ornament running around the body. The bottom rim is decorated with a wide gilt band. The maker's mark, ЛФЗ (LFZ) is displayed on the bottom. This version of the logo was accepted for use in 1986.

In very good to excellent condition. One of the blue cyclists has a small chip to the glaze and a few microscopic contact points on the legs. Other than that, there is not a single visible detriment of any kind anywhere on the outer or inner surfaces. The luster of the gilding around the rim is not diminished by scuffing, rubbing or any other visible damage.

1986 Summer Goodwill Games in Moscow were the first such games, organized in response to the boycotts of the period when the USA team refused to participate in the Moscow Olympic Games of 1980, and the Soviet Union refused to participate in the 1984 Games in Los Angeles.
