

Large Wall Plaque with Image of the Order of Lenin, in Hammered Tin, circa 1960s-80s.

Measures approx. 21" x 21". The image is hammered onto a 1mm-thick sheet of tin. A plaque like this was probably part of a large propaganda foyer display of party and military leaders in a vocational trade or military school. Eight tiny holes left by nails which were used to affix the plaque to a backing seem to support this viewpoint.

In very good condition. The edges show mild warping which must have occurred when the portrait was dismantled. Two small dents are visible under Lenin's eye and to the left and right of his head. A few very minor scratches can be seen, mostly at the bottom, but none of this damage is too intrusive or detractive. There is very mild and attractive patina in recessed areas, actually just adding character, as well as contrast and high relief to the artwork.

Please note that the medal in our last photo is for size reference only and is not part of the sale.
