

Medal for Development of the Virgin Lands, Variation 2, circa 1960s-70s issue.

In brass; 32.1 mm wide. Features rounded eyelet, same as on the late versions of WW2 campaign medals aka "Voenkomat" issues.

In excellent condition. The details are perfect. The "gilt" mint luster is bright on both sides, free of significant blemishes and showing only a very mild patina that adds character.. Comes on original aluminum suspension with a well preserved, attractive old ribbon.
