

Eduard Shevardnadze, circa early 1980s.

Official photo taken at the time when he was candidate member to the Politburo and First Secretary of the Georgian Communist Party. He was also Soviet foreign minister for a while, and ended up as President of independent Georgia after the collapse of the Soviet Union - position he occupies currently, despite assassination attempts and bloody civil war.

About 5" x 7", excellent condition with storage wear only. From the TASS photo chronicles (typed on the note attached to verso).
