

Award Medals of Russia of the Second Half of XVIII Century.

Dmitry Peters, C. 2004, Moscow. Russian text, hard cover, 268 pp. 5.5" x 8".

Extremely detailed research and excellent reading on Russian medals established during the reign of Elizabeth, Catherine the Great and Paul I. Richly illustrated by fine quality photos and detailed drawings. The book for the first time provides massive amount of information such as the names of die-cutters, number of medals produced and issued, relative rarity of medals etc. Includes extensive bibliography.

An old out of print book; the copy we are offering is in mint condition, never used and free of shelf wear.

This book is head and shoulders above anything ever published on the subject. Highly recommended!
