

"Military Capital of the Russian Empire in Photographs of Late XIX - Early XX C".

C. 2004, St. Petersburg. Russian text, hardcover, 237 pages. Large 12 x 9 format. The book includes hundreds of stunningly clear and detailed b/w period photos that would put many modern photo references to shame.

This is a fascinating resource for studying uniforms and equipment of the Russian Imperial Army and Navy, as well as the drill and lifestyle of the officers and enlisted men. Highly recommended!
