

Zima, Gorodnitsa Porcelain Factory figurine is a humorous version of an overly bundled up kid, "ready" for winter fun, circa 1960s.

2 1.2" x 2 5/8" x 4 5/8" (63 x 66 x 117mm), no clear TM, but clearly identified as a Gorodnitsa product in Volume 2 of "Soviet Porcelain".

Very Good to excellent condition, minor wear to painted details does not detract from the figure's humor.

The figure brings home the point that parents all around the world are equally protective of their children's health when the time comes to let them play in the snow!
