

Boy on a Rocking Horse, Polonnoe Artistic Ceramics Factory, 1956-1973, delightful porcelain figurine of a youngster at play.

6 1/4" x 3 3/4" x 2 7/8" (16 x 10 x 7 cm)

Very good condition although the very back section of the left rocker has been lost to time.

A 21st Century psychologist would probably recoil in horror at the whip our little equestrian holds in his right hand!
