

May 1 Parade Participant's Badge, Klintsovskiy District, Bryansk Region, 1970s-80s.

Aluminum, paint; 50.2 mm tall. Although modeled from the similar badges issued for Moscow parades, this badge is of somewhat lesser quality and does not show a specific date. There are raised maker's logo and the retail price on the reverse. In excellent condition.

Intended for a May Day parade participant from the in the town of Klintsovo or its surrounding area, a district of the larger Bryansk Region of Russia. The badge was likely worn by a VIP, since few revelers were issued badges such as this one.
