

Document for KGB 60th Anniversary Badge, issued on 13 December 1977 to Zauri Lashkarashvili.

In excellent, near mint condition.

This is an interesting, early issue document. The 60th Anniversary of KGB award was known to be issued for years after the 1977 jubilee, even as late as 1986. The later version of the certificate although similar to the early type, had a slightly different text on the inside and facsimile signature of Chebrikov rather than Andropov.
