

Badge for Excellence in Livestock Farming, Type 2 Variation 2, #2985, circa 1940s-50s.

Silver-plated brass, enamels. 44.5 x 34.5 mm. Features relief reverse with engraved serial number at 8 o'clock position. Very nice quality, typical of Soviet mint production. Large turquoise oval with detailed depiction of a camel, horse, goat, sheep and cow, red bottom plaque with "BHMAV" abbreviation in Cyrillic.

In outstanding, excellent condition. The enamel is flawless. The raised details of the animals and wreath show no wear, and the silver plating is perfect, creating a full impression of a piece made in solid silver. There is very attractive toning to silver finish on both sides. The screw post is full or near length, well over 15 mm. Includes original screw plate with Soviet Mint logo.
