

NKVD Photo ID #60, issued on 1 February 1941 to Police Junior Lieutenant Nikolay Mulyarchuk, Kharkov NKVD Police Department, Ukraine.

Measures s approx. 2 ¼" x 3 ¼" (6 x 8 cm), standard size for the NKVD IDs of the period. The red cloth-bound cover shows embossed Soviet state emblem of pre- 1948 model and impressed date "1941". The ID states that that its owner served as district police inspector. The photo shows Mulyarchuk wearing a uniform with appropriate collar tabs (with three square pips). Hand-signed by Major Komraov, Chief of the NKVD Police of Kharkov Region.

In very good condition. The exterior shows only moderate wear, the binding is still perfectly tight. On the interior, there is separation to the paper at the spine, but both pages are very clean and the entries completely legible. An interesting NKVD ID issued just weeks before the Nazi invasion of the Soviet Union.
