

Badge of a Participant of the Military Parade on the Red Square in Commemoration of the 70th Anniversary of the October Revolution, 1987 issue.

Aluminum, paint; medallion is 36.0 mm wide; the suspension is 38.2 mm wide. An unusual design with oversized suspension representing a red bow worn by the Bolsheviks during the 1917 revolution. The inscription in the white band is "Toa Participant of the Military Parade". The reverse of the medallion shows raised inscription "Moscow 7 November 1987". The reverse of the suspension device shows stylized raised logo ФСС ("FSS") of the Experimental Factory of Sports Souvenirs and Badges in Moscow. In excellent condition.

Item# 34722

$30.00

