

Vladimir Lenin, lithographic portrait on linen, circa 1960s- 70s.

Measures 21½" x 29", an impressive life-size portrait masterfully executed in pastel colors. The edges were deliberately left raw to be hidden by a frame.

In excellent condition, completely sound and unfaded. There are a couple of minor spots near the edge that do not affect the image and in any case will disappear from view when the portrait is properly framed. The wrinkles will likewise disappear when the linen is carefully steamed or framed. This uncommon and impressive piece was obviously meant for an important government office.

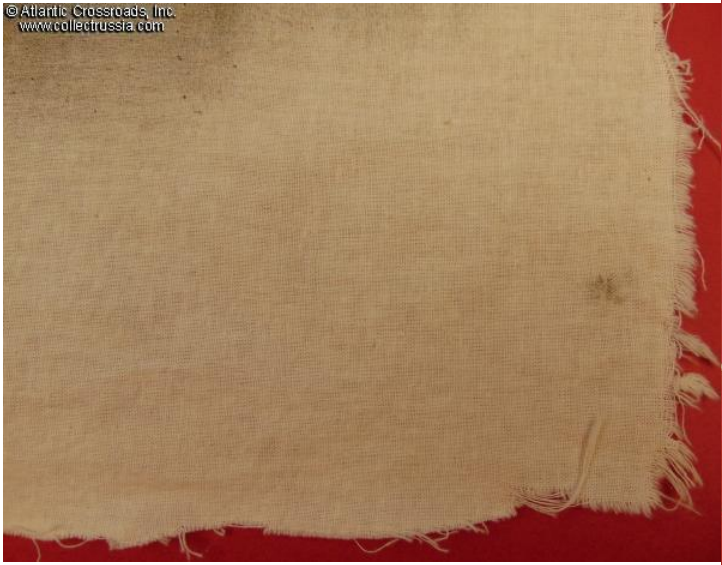

Please note, medal in our photo is for size reference.
