

Medal for Rescuing a Drowning Person, 1960s-80s.

In brass, measures 37.1 mm in height incl. eyelet, 32.0 mm wide; weighs 14.5 g not including the suspension and connecting link.

Excellent condition. The medal shows no wear visible to the naked eye and has only a few microscopic contact marks to the raised edge, unnoticeable without magnification. The raised details are perfect and exceptionally crisp. The original mint luster "gilt" finish is beautifully preserved and bright having only miniscule spots of very light oxidation that add character. It is completely free of blemishes or significant tarnish. Comes with immaculately clean old ribbon.
