Slender very tall "Single Stem" vase in clear cut glass, circa 1950s-70s.

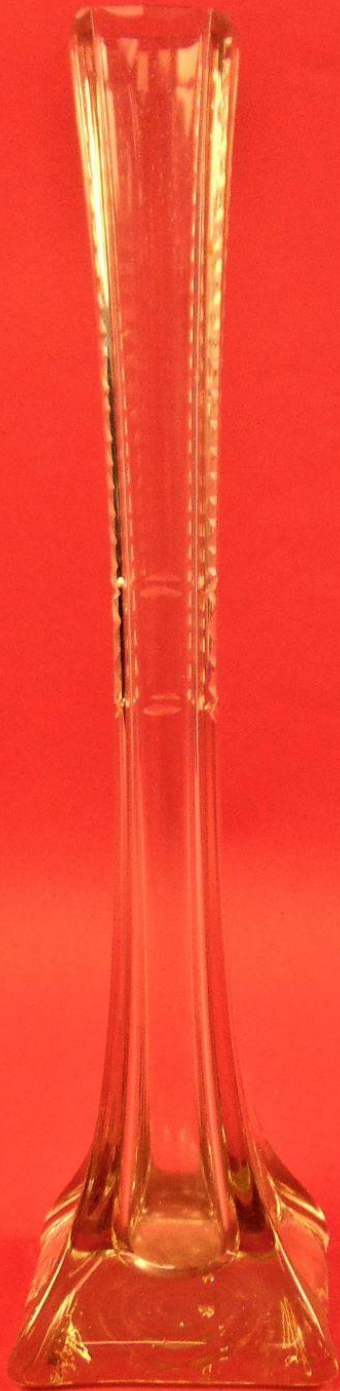

Stands almost 13 ¾" tall, 1 ½" wide at the rim, square base about 3 ½" across. Hand-blown, cut at at the top half and on the rim.

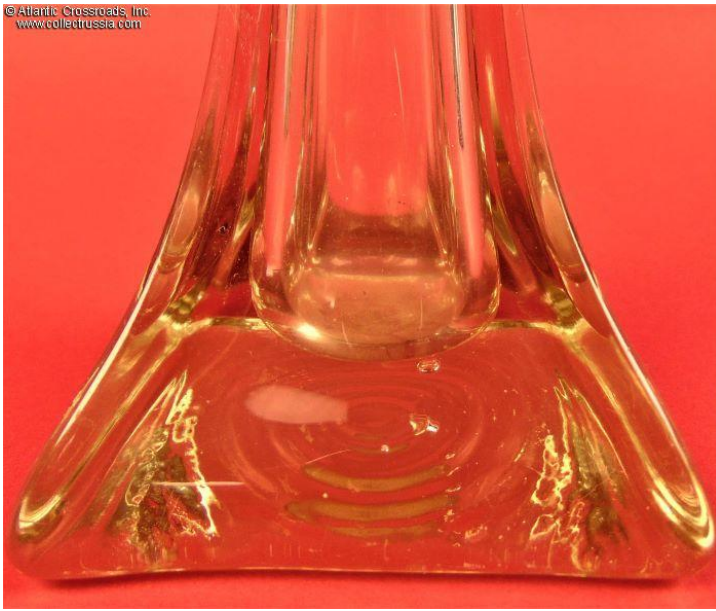

In excellent condition. The vase has been in use and acquired traces of being filled with water and a few very minor hairline scratches and also a tiny chip at the very rim but on the inside. Hardly visible and not at all detractive. All the imperfections disappear visually when the vase is filled with water.

Please note that the pen in our photo is for size reference only.
