

Flag of a Naval Fleet Commander, in wool bunting, dated 1985.

Measures 38" x 25". Features a red field with three white stars, and a regular naval ensign in the upper left corner. The canvas hoist sleeve has stamped GOST-81 manufacturing code, the name of the manufacturer (Galantereynaya Factory), round quality control stamp and a 1985 date of manufacture.

In outstanding, excellent condition. The colors are strong. There are no snags, tears or moth bites. The flag is very clean, completely free of soiling or stains. A superb example of the very uncommon Soviet "three star admiral" flag in easy to display size.
