

Little Boy with a Dog (aka "Young Border Guard"), early 1950s cast, by Lomonosov Porcelain Factory, Leningrad.

Measures approx. 5" (13 cm) tall and 3 1/2" x 5" at the base. The little boy is wearing a military style pilotka side cap; both he and his dog are ready for action. This dynamic and perfectly balanced composition is in the best traditions of LFZ. The LFZ trademark is partly worn out but is still clearly identifiable (fig. # 487 in Volume One of Marks on Soviet Porcelain, Faience, and Majolica, 1917-1991 by Nasonova et al). This particular graphic was in use in the 1950s. The "2 COPT" mark in green is the QC stamp indicating second (mid-level) quality rating.

In excellent outstanding condition. Zero post-production wear or damage to point out.

Please note, the coin in our photo is for size reference.
