

Photo Postcard First Lesson, 1960.

The size is continental 6" x 4", postally unused and unmarked. The artwork presents a print of a color photo of the first lesson of a new school year. Judging by the young pioneer ties and guessing the age of the children, this is the 3rd or 4th grade. Published by IZOGIZ, circulation 650,000 copies. The back is divided, the photographer's name, D. Sholomovich, is printed in the bottom left-hand corner.

In excellent condition. The artwork is pristine. The corner bumps are tiny and barely noticeable, the verso is very clean and shows just a mild trace of shelf wear and very moderate age-toning to the paper.
