

Antiques and Collectibles Issue #10 (31), October 2005.

Russian text, soft cover, 144 pp.

In this issue: German pewter utensils of XVII-XIX century; the art of Bovet timepieces; the mystery of Faberge's last, unfinished, egg; lithographic illustrations in medieval literature; the art of XVIII century silversmiths; Russian woodcarving, Vasily Vornovskiy style; Kiddush cups and goblets; Art Deco in jewelry; engraving on glass, XVI-XVIII century; variations in silver and gold probe marks; the golden age of advertisement; the art in early Russian photography; Russian orders manufactured by Faberge, 1890-1913; small denomination Russian coins minted during Peter the Great's reign.

The magazine is in near-mint condition, showing just microscopic scuffs at the head and foot of the spine.

Please note that the pen in our photo is for size reference only.

Item# 40474

$15.00

