

Porcelain Figurine Pepper Shaker Fawn Bambi, unmarked, circa 1970s-80s.

Measures 3" tall, the base is approx. 2 ¼ x 1 ½". Unmarked by the manufacturer but the artistry and level of detail are on par with any of the best major Soviet porcelain factories. As a pepper shaker, the figurine features the standard 3 holes on top and a silicone stopper on the bottom for pouring the pepper.

In excellent condition. Light craquelure becomes visible but only at strong magnification. No other wear or damage anywhere.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
