

WW1 Lithographic Poster Dashing Cossack Cavalry Charge, 1915.

Measures 21 3/4" x 15 1/2". Printed by the I. Fuka Lithography Print Shop, Moscow. The caption under the lithograph describes the successful dashing attack of the Cossacks on 28 February 1915 near the village Nizviska on the Dniester River where they literally destroyed three squadrons of German Hussars, capturing the only 10 surviving officers and 25 enlisted men.

In excellent condition. The paper is barely age-toned and shows just a few barely noticeable wrinkles.

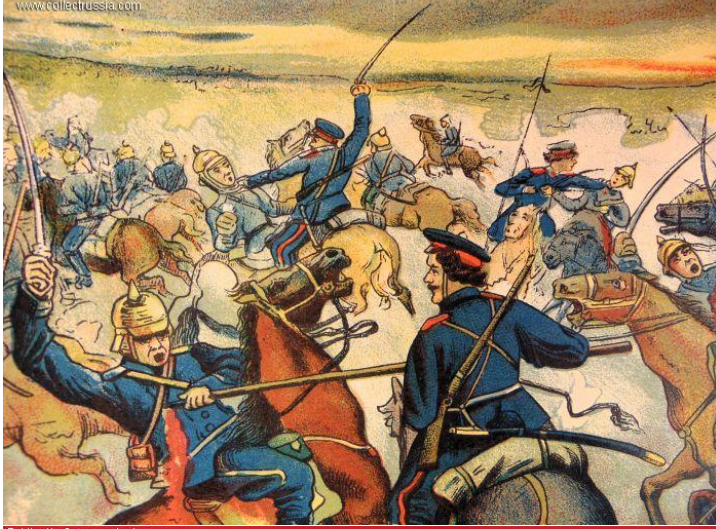

Please note that the 1-ft. ruler in our photo is for size reference.
