

Military ID of a Driver with the 1st Infantry Brigade, 10th Rifle Division, RKKA, issued 2 April 1919.

Measures 9/4" x 7", hand-written on thin low-quality paper, bears the letterhead stamp of the Communications Company of the 1st Infantry Brigade, 10th Rifle Division of the Red Army. Issued in the city of Petrozavodsk, Karelia. The ID certifies that Nikolai Ilyin serves as a driver with the Communications Company of the 1st Infantry Brigade of the 10th Rifle Division of the Red Army, and is permitted to travel freely after midnight while on military duty. The ID is valid until 1 June 1919.

In very good condition. The paper is thin but not brittle, somewhat wrinkled but mostly free of soiling on the obverse. There is moderate wear to the paper along the right edge, especially in the lower right-hand corner. However, no paper is missing, and the wear can be repaired, if desired.
