

Zvaigzne (Star) Literary-Artistic Twice-Monthly Magazine, Latvian SSR, #2, 15 August 1950.

Measures approx. 10" x 13", printed on high-quality coated paper, 32 pp. excluding the covers. Heavily illustrated with b/w and color photos, and drawings. Circulation 40,000.

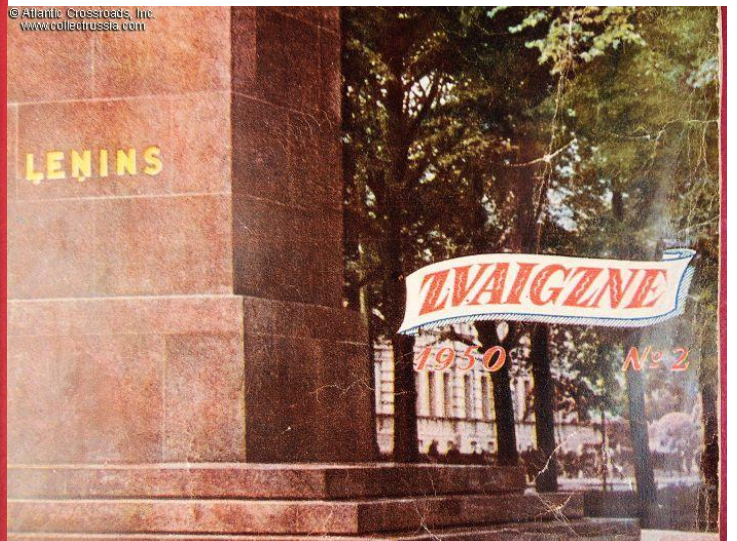

In very good condition. The covers show mild to moderate wear, mostly to the fold line, edges, and corners. The fold line shows partial separations, easily repairable if desired. The internal pages are intact, mostly clean and mildly age-toned. The illustrations are not faded, the text is crisp and perfectly legible.

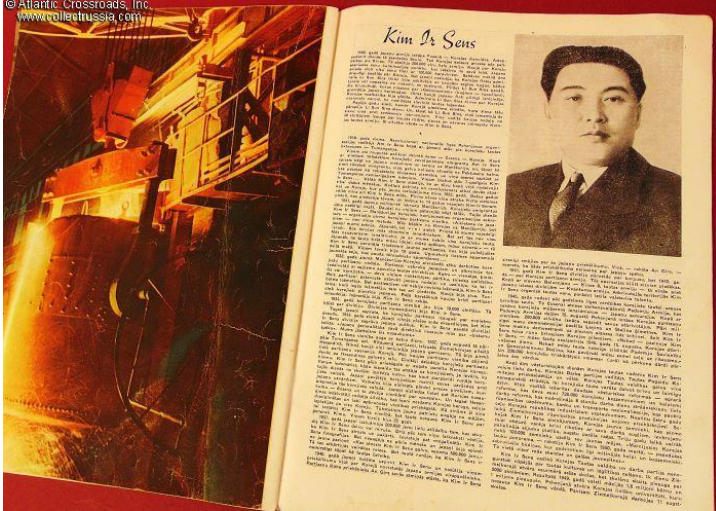

This second issue of the magazine builds on the propagandistic hype of the first. In one phrase, the joy of the Latvian people over being once again a Soviet republic knows no bounds. A session of the Supreme Soviet of the LSSR in the State Opera and Ballet Theater, the Second Song Festival of Soviet Latvia, unveiling a monument to Lenin in Riga - every joyous event gathers huge crowds of happy Latvians.
