Measures approx. 3 1/2" x 5", printed on textured cardboard semi-gloss photo paper. The inscription under the image reads "Fira! Although the photo is bad, it should not be better than the original. Have it for good memory."

In excellent condition. The obverse is very lightly soiled - not detractively but, rather, enhancing the authentic feel of the piece. The image is in sharp focus, the ink of the inscription is crisp and perfectly legible. The verso shows some foxing but it is irrelevant on the back side.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
