

Photo ID of Ivan Kravets (Иван Михайлович Кравец), a former WW2 partisan in Ukraine, issued on 3 March 1968.

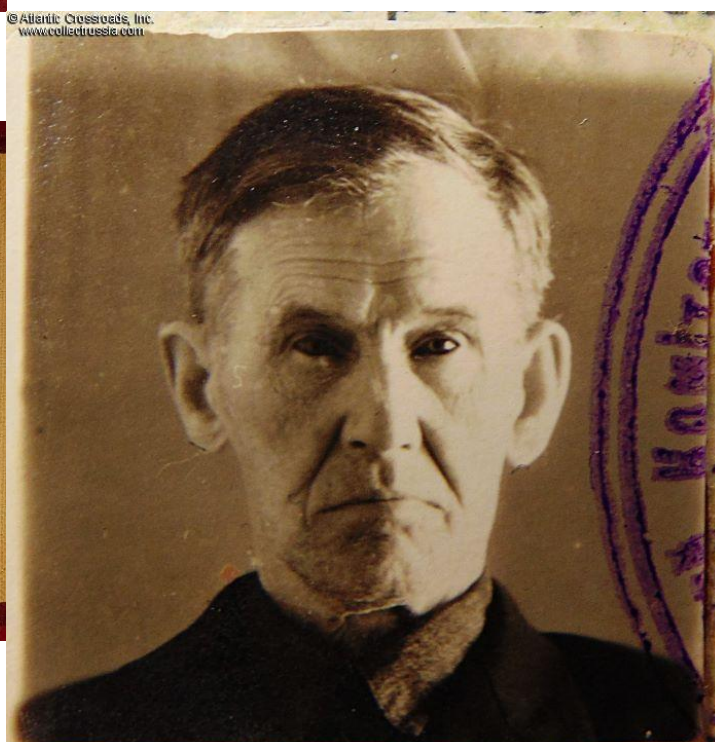

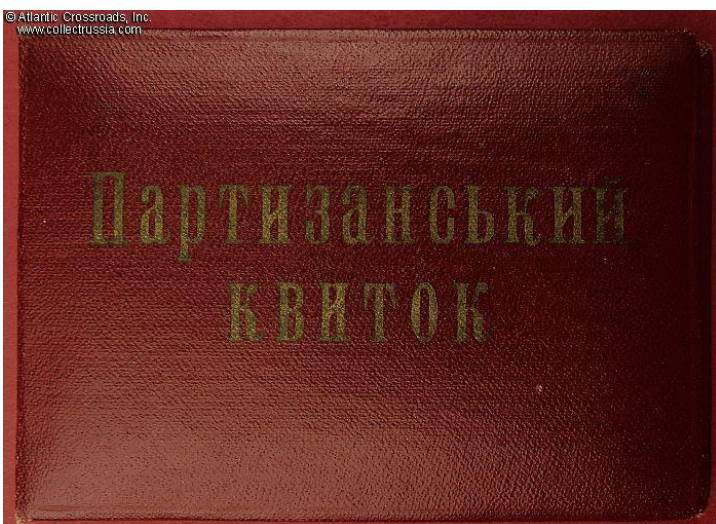

Booklet format, measuring approx. 3 3/4" x 2 1/2" when closed. In beveled hard covers wrapped in nice-quality oilcloth. The lettering on the front cover is in gold paint, reading "Partisan's ID" ("ticket", if translated literally), in Ukrainian. Inside, the ID is printed and filled in by hand in Ukrainian on page 1, and in Russian on page 2. Both sides bear the seal of the district committee of workers' deputies and is supposed to be hand-signed by its chairman, but the signature is missing. The ID was issued in the village of Nosovka, Chernigov Region, Ukraine. It states that Ivan Kravtsov participated in the partisan movement during the Patriotic War on the territory of Ukraine from September 1941 until September 1943.

In excellent condition. The lettering on the cover has retained about 50% of its golden luster. Inside, all the printed text is clear and perfectly legible. The seal is rather faint but quite legible, the ID photo is pristine. The handwritten entries were made in Indian ink and remain as bright as the day they were written.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
