

Postcard Budyonny's Cavalry Breaking Through the Polish Frontline, 1963.

The size is continental standard 6" x 4", postally unused and unmarked, published by the Soviet Artist Publishing House, circulation 14,500, extremely small by Soviet standards. The artwork is a b/w offset print of the 1927 large oil-on-canvas painting by M. Avilov depicting his rendition of a battle scene from the Soviet-Polish war of 1920, part of the larger Russian Civil War, the June 1920 successful attack of Budyonny's First Cavalry Army breaking through the Polish frontline.

In excellent condition: no wear but minuscule corner bumps, barely noticeable.
