

Camouflage beret in KLMK "computer pattern", design dates to late 1970s - mid 1980s, manufactured 1990.

In light weight cotton. Elasticized-- one size fits between 56 and 58. This style of beret was used extensively in Afghanistan by Soviet Border Guard troops, and was eventually replaced by a camouflage visor cap. Excellent condition with storage age only. Sewn-in manufacturer's tag on the inside.

/See "Camouflage Uniforms of the Soviet Union, 1937 to the Present", by Dennis Desmond, page 92/

Item# 8654

$34.00

© Atlantic Crossroads, Inc.
www.collectrussia.com

© Atlantic Crossroads, Inc.
www.collectrussia.com

© Atlantic Crossroads, Inc.
www.collectrussia.com

© Atlantic Crossroads, Inc.
www.collectrussia.com

